

DIANA EZEREX

LIVE

“Her music – at times almost soothing – stands in an intriguing contrast to the weight of the subject matter.”
(Rolling Stone)

Diana Ezerex makes empathy audible. Pop with a clear edge—honest, direct, and moving. Her lyrics name contradictions, speak the uncomfortable out loud, and still leave room for hope. She brings this stance to stages and to 60+ concerts in prisons across Germany, Austria, and Switzerland. Her versatile, emotive voice moves from delicate to powerful, inviting audiences to look closer, feel deeper, and think along.

Her songs take a stand: against exclusion, for belonging and acceptance. Live, they hit with full force—intimate, gripping, uncompromising—moving between big hooks and quiet moments, between hard truth and empathy.

Her multi-part IDENTITY project (four EPs) weaves personal experience and social perspective into a clear artistic position: music as an invitation to dialogue. On stage, Diana Ezerex commands with presence and a band that delivers both dynamics and depth. The result: concerts that resonate—sparking courage, conversation, and change you can feel.
